The Golden Era of standing on the balcony and shouting- " Arey Sabzi Wale Bhaiya Ruko Ruko, Aloo kitne k diye? " has ended with the End Game of Thanos(Just Kidding :P).

In 2021, Things are different. We don't have time to wait for a vendor to pass through our houses or to roam in the areas to find a fruits and vegetable vendor to buy stuff or sometimes there is urgency like guests came without notifying xD.

But now you don't have to worry to wait or roam because we are here.

VikretaG, A startup helping customers and vendors to be connected and acting as an intermediate block without any charging commission from any side.

What should you have to do?
